COMMUNITY INVITED TO RECEPTION FOR ARTIST STACEY SMALL RUPP

May 23, 2025 – Sturgeon Bay, Wisconsin

The community is invited to attend a reception on Friday, June 6 from 4:30 p.m. to 6 p.m., at the Door County Community Foundation. The reception celebrates the Lobby Gallery Spring Exhibition featuring works by Stacey Small Rupp. The Community Foundation is located at 222 N 3rd Avenue in Downtown Sturgeon Bay.

Stacey's subjects are deeply rooted in the natural beauty and rural character of the peninsula, from peaceful shorelines and blooming wildflowers, to timeworn barns and the ever-changing seasons. Her connection to Door County traces back to the early Scandinavian settlers of Northern Door, and her artwork reflects both a reverence for tradition and a love for the land.

A graduate of UW–Stout with a BFA, Rupp is a proud member of the Wisconsin Watercolor Society. Her paintings have been juried into notable exhibitions at the Miller Art Museum in Sturgeon Bay and The Hardy Gallery in Ephraim. Her work was also featured in Celebrating Door County's Wild Places, a tribute to the region's natural heritage. In addition to her studio practice, Stacey shares her talents through workshops at The Clearing Folk School in Ellison Bay.

Each season, different Door County artists will be invited to exhibit their work at the Door County Community Foundation's Lobby Gallery. The Gallery is normally open to the public during the Community Foundation's regular hours of 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

The Door County Community Foundation, Inc. is a collection of separate charitable funds set up by individuals, families, non-profit organizations, private foundations and businesses that are managed, invested and disbursed for the current and future good of Door County. The Community Foundation was launched in 1999, currently administers more than $55 million in assets, and distributes more than $5 million to charities every year.
